

Project Members:

SLA Rubric	Exceeds Expectations	Meets Expectations	Approaches Expectations	Does Not Meet Expectations
	20-19	18-16	15-13	12-1
Design - Does student plan and structure the project thoughtfully and purposefully?
Knowledge - Does student demonstrate the understanding of ideas through inquiry, research, analysis, or experience?
Application - Does student use a variety of skills and strategies to apply knowledge to the problem or project?
Process - Does student take the necessary steps to fully realize the project goals?
Presentation - Does student effectively communicate the central ideas of the project?

WEB PROJECTS CHECKLIST

- 15 Annotations per person in group
- Title Page
- Process Paper
- MLA Format for Annotated Bibliography
- Sources separated into primary/secondary sources
- Web site contains no more than 1,200 visible, student-composed words.
- One page of the web site must serve as the "home page." The home page must include the names of participants, entry title, division, and a main menu that directs viewers to the various sections of the site.
- Multimedia clips do not last more than 45 seconds
- All professional photographs, graphics, video, recorded music, etc. within the site are properly cited in the website and in the annotated bibliography.
- The pages that comprise the site are viewable in a recent version of Microsoft Internet Explorer. Entries do not link to live or external sites, except to direct viewers to plug-ins.
- Clear connection between creating/sustaining change and the individual